Subscribe to Appboy! Lyrics

The future is here, the future is here
Profits are soaring now that Appboy's here.

I think quarterlys is the loveliest time of the year, I do,
Don't you?
[speaking] "Of course you do."

Business is in bloom and it's just afternoon
as we innovate new ways to brand.

Every day you will see my customers and me
interacting in dynamic harmony.

When those automated pop-ups make your next big sale
You'll be subscribing to Appboy without fail.

Our image is bright in our customer's eye
as we're relating in new ways.

We've gained notoriety
for our software propriety
and expanded our society
with our Appboy frames.

It brings inebriety to marketing sub-variety
which explains my gaiety
and lack of refrains.

But it's quite a vision
to automate a whole division.

So if today you're free,
then please come with me
and we'll subscribe to Appboy without delay!

And maybe we'll see a promotion or two,
When we subscribe to Appboy today!

My career will be quickenin'
with each link that clickenin',
We subscribe to Appboy,
and then take a nap boy!
